

Guest Room

Our client was looking for a fitted wardrobe in her second bedroom. The brief was a simply designed piece with clean lines offering a range of short and long hanging space together with a bank of drawers. Our client was keen to have the wardrobes painted with the top door panels glazed with fabric behind them to coordinate with the rest of the room scheme.

